This historical map illustrates the cadastral and urban layout of a Belgian town, likely in the late 19th or early 20th century. The map features a dense network of streets and roads, with several large, irregularly shaped land parcels labeled with names in French. Key labeled areas include:

- La Bruyère: Located in the upper left, near a railway line.
- Au Bois des Aux and Pourceau Bois des Pourceaux: Two parcels of land near the railway line.
- Les Terres Pagnoules: A large parcel in the center-left.
- Derrière le Lamay: A parcel in the upper right.
- Fond des Terres Pagnoules: A parcel in the center-right.
- Aux Beaux Norets: A parcel in the center-right.
- Halette: A small town or cluster of buildings in the center-right.
- Thier Moor: A parcel in the lower right.
- Bois Messires Raes: A parcel in the lower left.
- les Colombières: A parcel in the lower left.
- La Bruyère: A street name in the upper left.
- Rue du Carrefour: A street name in the center-left.
- Avenue du Jolibois: A street name in the center-left.
- Rue Xhavée: A street name in the center-right.
- Rue de la Halette: A street name in the center-right.
- Rue des Coquerais: A street name in the lower right.
- Rue des Chalets: A street name in the lower right.
- CHAMPS: A label for a field in the lower right.
- FER DE LIÈGE NAMUR: A label for a railway line at the bottom.
- CHAMIN DE FER: Labels for railway lines in various directions.
- CHAMIN DE FER DE SAMUR À LIÈGE: A label for a railway line at the bottom.

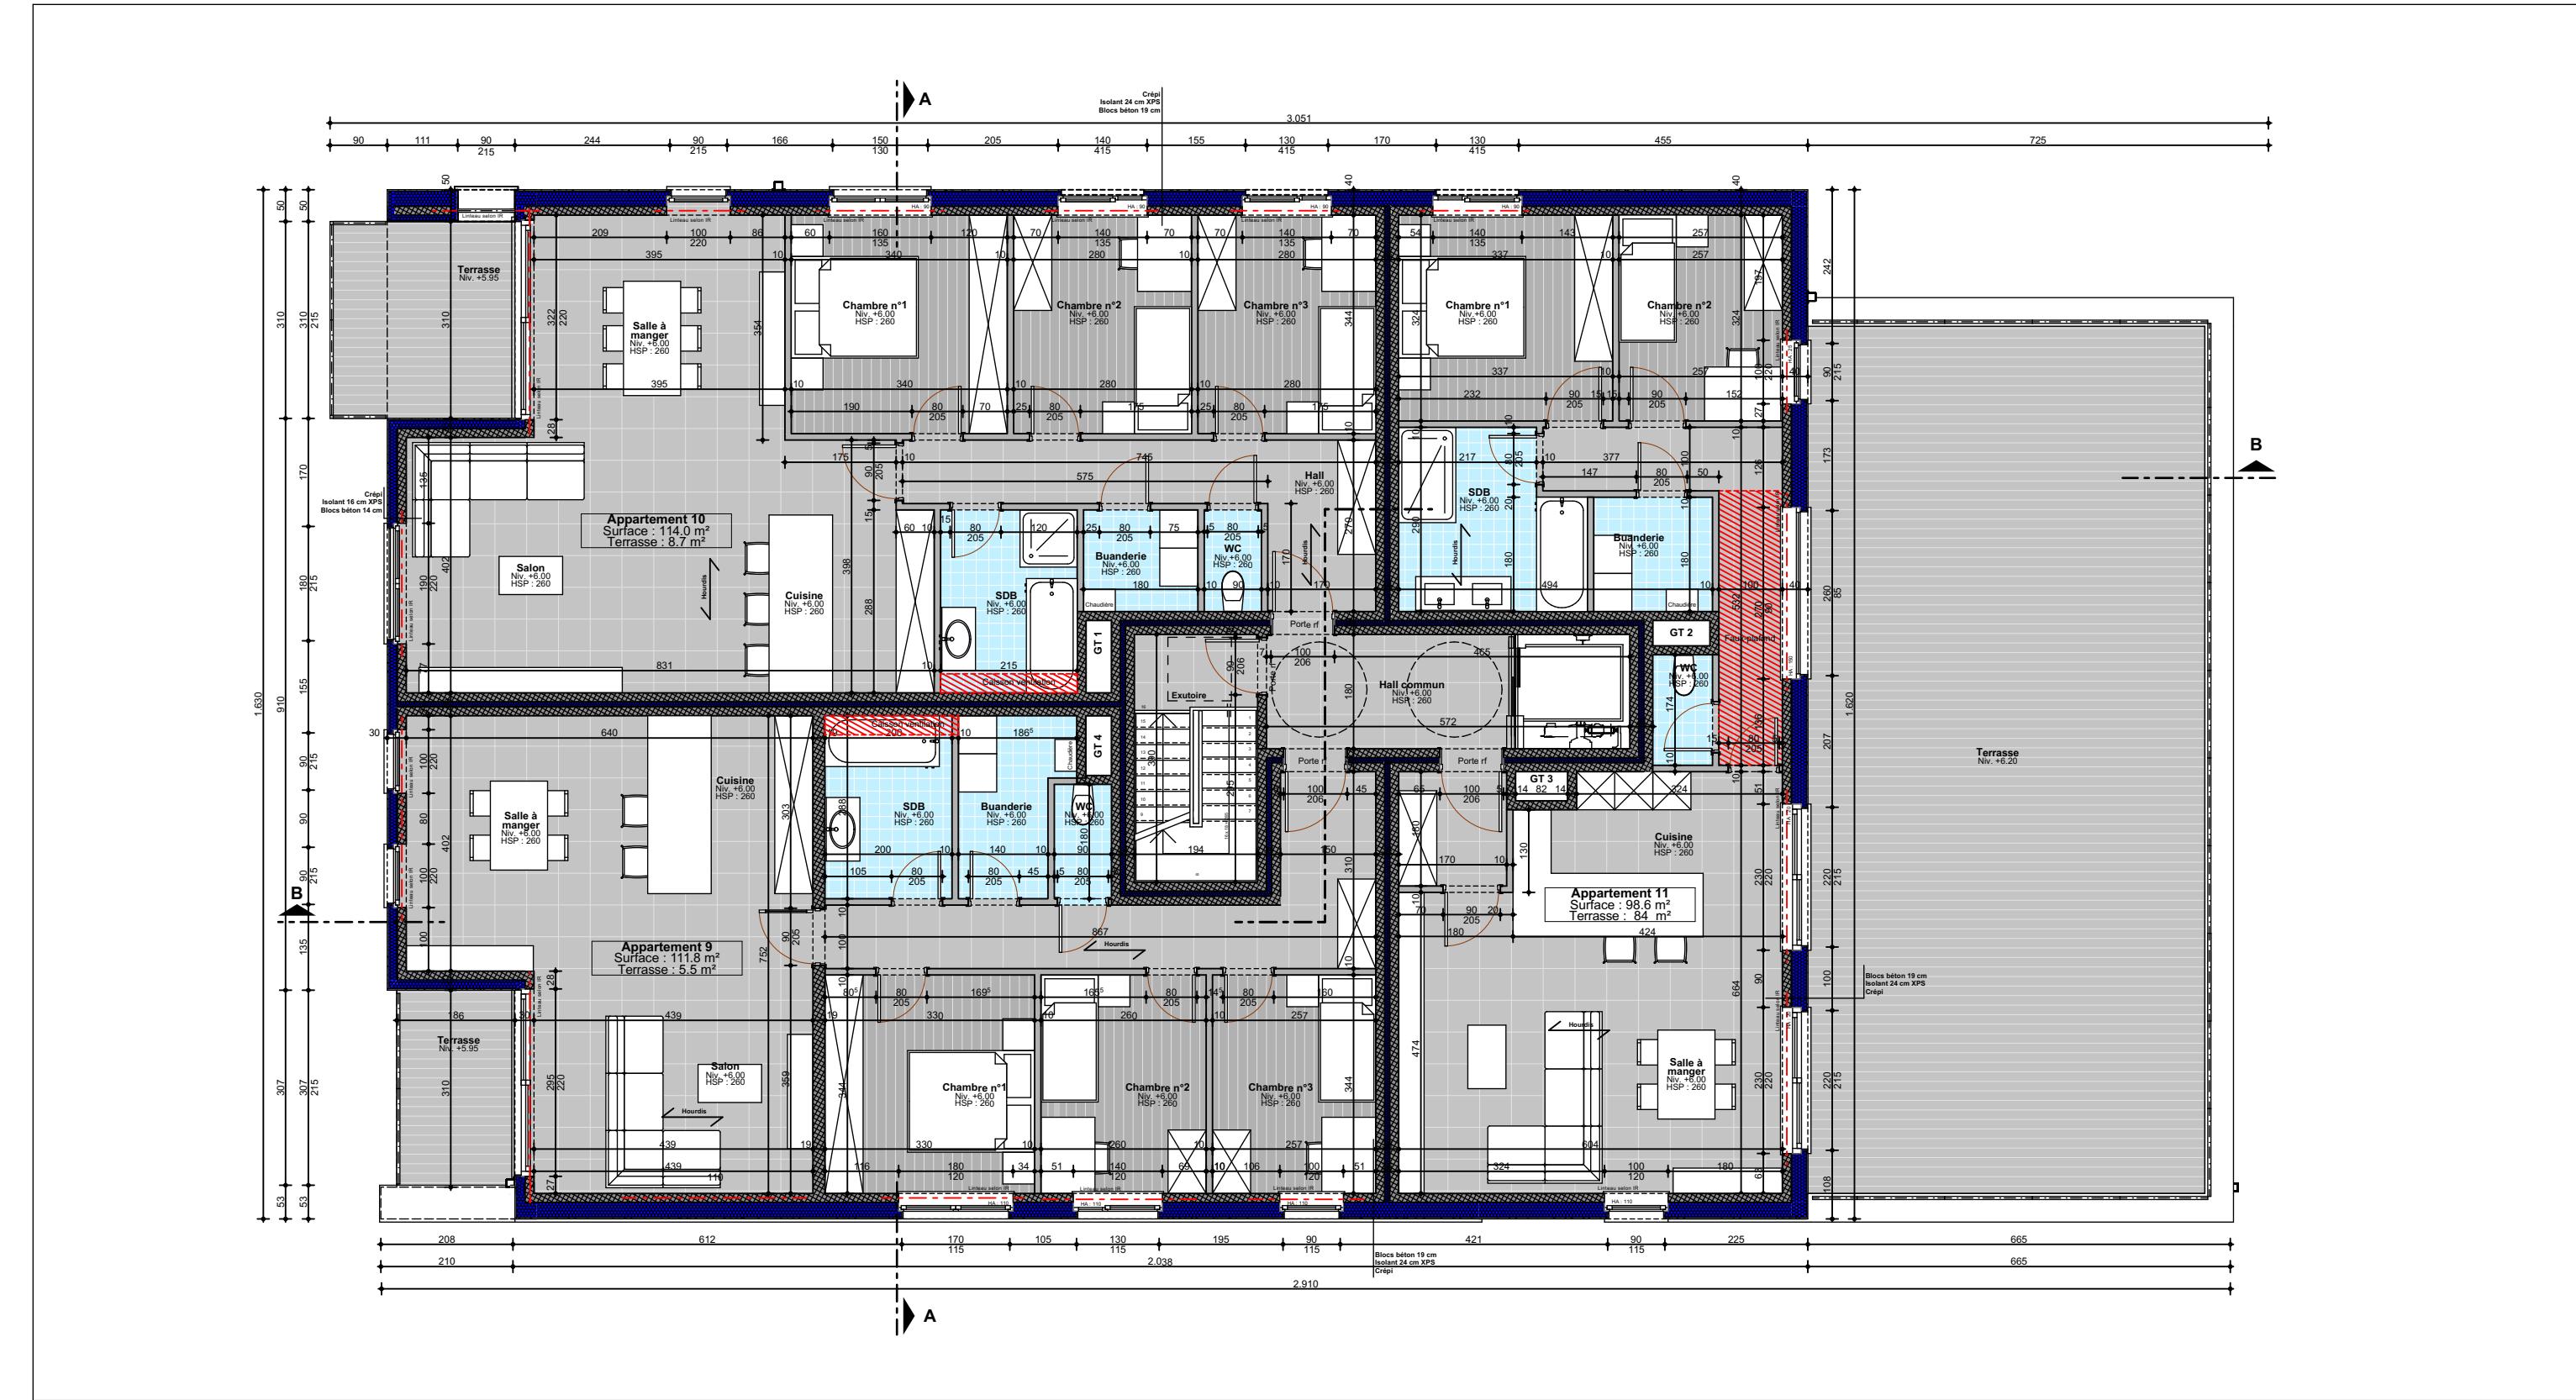

A north arrow is located in the lower center, pointing upwards. The map is rendered in black and white, with building footprints shown as grey shapes.
