

Architectural section drawing of a building, showing a cross-section through the roof and walls. The drawing includes various structural elements, rooms, and a detailed exterior elevation on the right. Key features include a gabled roof with skylights, a central hall, and a brick facade with arched windows. Labels include 'P. N. 2.01', 'P. N. 1.01', 'P. N. 0.01a', 'P. N. 0.01b', and 'P. N. 0.01c'. A note at the bottom states: 'poortpanelen en -kaders in zelfde vlak - drie poorten dienen één geheel te vormen'.
